VENUE SCOUT

The first—and often hardest—decision you'll make is where to throw down. Here are 10 spots to make that task a bit easier.

BY LOUIS BARAGONA

THE HOXTON, WILLIAMSBURG

BROOKLYN

COST from $20,000

GUEST COUNT 100

ABOUT Kick off the festivities at The Backyard, the hotel's laid-back outdoor terrace, before heading up to Summerly for breathtaking city views.

NEW THE ABBEY INN & SPA

PEEKSKILL

COST from $18,000

GUEST COUNT 150

ABOUT History buffs will enjoy wandering the expanses of Fort Hill, but romantics will be content dancing under the ballroom's cathedral ceiling.

THE REDBURY NEW YORK

NEW YORK CITY

COST from $12,000

GUEST COUNT 140

ABOUT Embrace your inner Eloise and entertain guests in this NoMad staple, which has undergone a modern design spin since it first opened as the Martha Washington Hotel in 1903.

NEW GURNEY'S STAR ISLAND RESORT & MARINA

MONTAUK

COST from $36,000

GUEST COUNT 160

ABOUT This lakeside escape boasts the largest marina in The Hamptons, making it ideal lodging for those hoping to set sail.

Sound River Studios

SOUND RIVER STUDIOS

LONG ISLAND CITY
COST from $12,000
GUEST COUNT 275

ABOUT Think: spacious industrial warehouse—but make it bright, airy and modern with Manhattan skyline views and a private dock, just in case you’re hoping to hit the water for some pics.

LADURÉE SOHO

NEW YORK CITY
COST from $25,000
GUEST COUNT 70

ABOUT Leave behind the hustle and bustle of downtown for Ladurée’s cherry blossom garden and, obvi, its world-famous macarons.

MILK AND ROSES

BROOKLYN
COST from $8,000
GUEST COUNT 45

ABOUT Homemade food, craft cocktails and warm, cozy digs lined with shelves of vintage-style books make this spot feel like home.

NEW VALLEY ROCK INN & MOUNTAIN CLUB

SLOATSBURG
COST from $85,000
GUEST COUNT 150

ABOUT The 70,000 acres of protected parkland surrounding the property might convince you the city is a world away, but in reality, it’s only 30 minutes from the George Washington Bridge.

THE FOUNDRY

LONG ISLAND CITY
COST from $15,000
GUEST COUNT 140

ABOUT Echoes of history are felt throughout this restored metal factory, which includes an Insta-worthy courtyard covered in whimsical, climbing ivy.

THE NEW YORK PUBLIC LIBRARY, STEPHEN A. SCHWARZMAN BUILDING

NEW YORK CITY
COST from $50,000
GUEST COUNT 350

ABOUT Guests will feel as though they’ve gone back in time when stepping into this iconic New York City landmark.
