

30 Works We Want from Salon Art + Design 2021

George Nakashima, Long Chair, 1970s. Black walnut, white webbing. Courtesy Dobrinka Salzman Gallery

By PAUL LASTER, November 2021

Celebrating its ten-year anniversary edition at the Park Avenue Armory in New York, Salon Art + Design (<https://www.thesalonny.com>) has everything you need to make your style of living better.

Showcasing nearly 50 art and design galleries from around the world, the stylish fair—on view through Sunday, November 14—features excellent examples of modernist and contemporary furniture, dynamic lighting in a variety of materials and forms, posh pieces of jewelry and elegant artworks from the earliest time to now.

Scroll through the images below to see our favorite works from this year's show. WM

Ayala Serfaty, Kuramura Blue Armchair, 2020. Handmade wool and silk felt. Courtesy Maison Gerard