These 12 Jewels Are a Sparkling Way to Show Someone You Love Them This Valentine's Day

From a smart yet sexy watch to an Art Deco-inspired bangle.

BY RACHAEL BURROW FEB 9, 2021

Is there any token of affection more desirable and dramatic than jewelry? Sure, a romantic getaway offers a dreamy weekend, but you know what they say, diamonds are forever. Our style editors have hunted down some of the most coveted, feminine jewels that are sure to become a favorite new addition to your fabulous collection—and may likely become an heirloom piece for your family to show love for generations to come. From a sophisticated and sexy timepiece to an Art Deco-style diamond-and-sapphire bangle, we've uncovered the perfect gift for a whole range of fashionistas, be they new teenagers or a grandmother deserving of extra cheer this year.

Reine de Naples Coeur

Breguet

This striking timepiece is latest addition to Breguet's collection of Reine de Naples wristwatches, which were originally created for Napoleon Bonaparte's sister, Caroline Murat. The practical yet pretty accessory is ideal for nearly any occasion, bedecked in 18-carat rose gold, inset with 28 diamonds, and finished with a red alligator strap. Plus, it's self-winding and water-resistant to 98 feet.

Opal Drop Earrings

This gorgeously dainty bracelet is reminiscent of one effortlessly tied by hand—this one is just made of diamonds and white gold instead of ribbon. The seamless hand-tied effect was achieved through close collaboration between Graff's designers and master craftsmen, who created this sculptural piece. Bow diamond aficionados will love the rest of the collection, which features rings, earrings, necklaces, and pendants.

COURTESY OF TONY DUQUETTE

Amethyst, Ruby, Diamond, and Pearl Brooch

Tony Duquette

This dainty and dramatic 18-carat white gold diamond bracelet elevates any occasion with its modern yet feminine design. Fully handcrafted and set with three 0.08-carat brilliant-cut diamonds, this beauty is sure to be worn again and again for moments big and small.

COURTESY OF ALEXIA CONNELLAN

Hydrangea Earrings

Alexia Connellan

SHOP HERE

Her favorite blooms just became even more beautiful, thanks to Alexia Connellan's gorgeous sapphire, diamond, and pearl earrings. Connellan has a special affinity for hydrangeas, and they remind her of the moon, as do her favorite South Sea cultured pearls. This beautiful gift reminds her that you think she hangs the moon! We adore how the rosy luster of the precious pearls is complemented by the pink sapphires and diamonds set in 18-carat rose gold.

Kinee's Love Earrings

Francis de Lara x Gemfields x Walk for Giants

gemfields.com

£10,560.00

SHOP HERE

Featuring three Gemfields Mozambican rubies, these striking, asymmetrical heart earrings serve a greater purpose than looking beautiful. One earring resembles the shape of Africa, while the other "bleeds" a ruby teardrop, signifying the destruction of native habitats there. Both bold and exquisite, these earrings will make a statement every time she wears them.
