DESIGN DISCOVERIES FROM NEW YORK AND BEYOND

CABINET APPOINTMENTS

If there's one thing New Yorkers never have enough of, it's storage—for everything from important papers to bottled water for the home office. Fortunately, the market's newest case pieces not only hold a lot, but also hold their own in the style department. French designer Erwan Boulloud's custom Extra Lucide high cabinet, made to order from brass and oak and embellished with rock crystal inlay, opens up a world of possibilities.

Pricing ranges from $100,000 to $200,000, at Twenty First Gallery, 76 Franklin St, NYC, 212-206-1967, 21stgallery.com.

1 ROMANTIC INTERLUDE

Clad in Carpathian burl, bronze, and hand-folded leather, the Interlude Cabinet: Variation 02 makes a stunning statement piece. $116,000, by appointment at Apparatus, 124 W. 30th St., 4th fl., NYC, 646-527-9732, apparatusstudio.com.

2 DECO DREAM

It's five o'clock somewhere. From Italian designer Achille Salvagni's brand-new London showroom, this Art Deco-style bar cabinet, inspired by the Maharaja of Indore's cigarette case, deserves a toast. From $136,000, 1a Grafton St., 44 20 7409 0026, achillesalvagni.com.

3 GLAM AND GO

Originally created for Paris's Fauchon hotel, Roche Bobois's metallic pink Fauchon cabinet is an opulent, grown-up spin on the traditional minibar. $12,000, 200 Madison Ave., NYC, 212-889-0700, rochebobois.com.

4 A VISION IN BLUE

Go for a bold burst of color with French product designer Hervé Van der Straeten's blue lacquered-wood 428 Armoire Partition. $102,000, at Ralph Pucci International, 44 W. 18th St., NYC, 212-633-0452, ralphpucci.net.

5 FINE LINES

This 1950s-style geometric wood, glass, and lacquer cabinet by Draga & Aurel for Baxter features Neo-Plasticism influences with a contemporary edge. $29,494, at DDC, 134 Madison Ave., NYC, 212-685-0800, ddcnyc.com.
