"I have used this fixture in many different projects in varying sizes and colors. It is magical and feels like a blown-glass ceiling." Excelsior ceiling lamp, price upon request, barovier.com

"Thomas Jefferson painted his ceilings aqua blue, and this is something I have emulated in many of my projects." Carleton Blue, price upon request, finepaintsofeurope.com

HOME GROWN

Fresh off the publication of his 36th book, Rooms to Remember ($65, Shannongrove Press), designer Carleton Varney picks his favorite items inspired by flora.

By Kendyl Kearly

"Garden stools are the perfect drink table next to a club chair, as well as serve as additional seating while you are entertaining. This handpainted garden seat will add another layer to any room." Flowers and birds garden seat, $345, scullyandscully.com

"I have used canopy beds throughout my whole career, particularly at the Grand Hotel; they add a sense of yesterday and glamour to today's world." Tuxedo Park poster bed in white with COM fabric, $16,066, by Kindel Furniture at Baker Showroom, New York Design Center, 200 Lexington Ave.

"I love to layer a bed by mixing textures, patterns and prints. You spend a good deal of time in your bed, and it should make you happy." Jete D'Ocillet pink standard sham, $500, D. Porthault, 470 Park Ave.

"This classic Dorothy Draper piece from Kindel Furniture is always a showstopper and works in every room." Pinwheel chest in aqua with gold trim, $9,908, by Dorothy Draper for Kindel Furniture at Baker Showroom, New York Design Center, 200 Lexington Ave.
