

12 views | Oct 22, 2018, 05:08pm

Historic Art And Contemporary Jewels At TEFAF New York Fall Art Fair

Anthony DeMarco Contributor ⓘ

Watches & Jewelry

---

The third annual TEFAF New York Fall art fair will return to the Park Avenue Armory in New York on October 27 -31 with about 90 exhibitors from around the world, including 12 new vendors, showcasing fine and decorative arts, and jewelry from antiquity through the early 20th Century. In addition, the fair, an extension of the TEFAF Maastricht art fair held annually in The Netherlands, will host three contemporary jewelers.

Hemmerle 'Sons Of Horus' Earrings made of brown diamonds, bronze, silver and white gold HEMMERLE

Disciplines that will be on display include old masters paintings, modern art, furnishings, ceramics, glass, sculptures, books, manuscripts and Asian art. All the works go through a thorough vetting process before being included in the fair.

A sketch of a new Reza jewel to appear at TEF AF titled "Tree," featuring two emerald-cut emeralds weighing 1.64 carat and 1.80 carat, pear-shaped and marquise-shaped diamonds and round cabochon rubies. Set on pink and white gold REZA

TEFAF organizers say there is a renewed interest in historic art in America and TEF AF New York Fall is at the forefront of this conversation and climate by "highlighting the beauty and relevance of historic art within the current marketplace and providing an engaging platform for collectors and enthusiasts to view, explore and purchase the highest quality works across collecting categories."

Earrings with casts of parrot tulip petals with white and yellow gold, diamonds, vitreous enamel by Otto Jakob OTTO JAKOB AND TEFAF

For those who like a first chance to view and purchase what's available at TEFAF New York Fall, the Society of Memorial Sloan Kettering will hold its annual private opening night fundraiser on October 26, which attracts New York society and celebrities as well as notable collectors and philanthropists. Proceeds from "The Opening Night" will benefit The Society of Memorial Sloan Kettering's patient care, research, and education programs at Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center. Opening night tickets are available for purchase at www.society.mskcc.org/tefaf, or by calling 212.639.7972.

A black onyx bird's head with turquoise eye peaking out of 18k yellow textured gold leaves, the stem terminating with a triangular cut diamond, signed Cartier Paris, made available by S. J. Shrubsole s. j.

SHRUBSOLE AND TEFAF

Contemporary jewelers familiar to those who attend TEFAF will be showing new one-of-a-kind creations. Hemmerle, the jeweler that specializes in refined, artistic jewels, often combining traditional precious gems and metals with more unusual materials, is celebrating its 125th anniversary a new body of work that pays homage to Egyptian civilization, called “Revived Treasures.” The collection combines Egyptian artifacts with Hemmerle’s designs and motifs, including lotus flowers and temples.

Cartier gold bracelet with Lapis beads presented by A La Vieille Russie A LA VIEILLE RUSSIE

Place Vendôme jeweler, Reza, will be introducing a few delicate jewels with classic themes and modern interpretations with exceptional gems; while German jeweler, Otto Jakob, will bring his miniature wearable artworks inspired by the magic and artistic power of Etruscan, Celtic and Hellenic masterpieces.

Art Deco Mughal sapphire and diamond Ring, circa 1925 being offered by Siegelson, New York. SIEGELSON, NEW YORK AND TEFAF

There's a much larger contingent of dealers who specialize in vintage, antique and period jewels. They include: A. Aardewerk Antiquair Juwelier, A La Vieille Russie, Véronique Bamps, Siegelson, S. J. Shrubsole and Wartski.

An Art Nouveau Pendant by Henri Dubret in 18k gold, turquoise enamel and azurite malachite. Its center is a stylized image that resembles Osiris, a divinity in Egyptian mythology. It's being offered by A. Aardewerk Antiquair Juwelier A. AARDEWERK ANTIQUAIR JUWELIER AND TEFAF

In a previous life I was an award-winning daily newspaper reporter who moved to business and trade magazines and who now specializes in high jewelry and watches for publications around the world. My first magazine job was with a design and architecture trade publication wher... MORE

Anthony DeMarco is a freelance writer and founder of Jewelry News Network. Please join me on Facebook, Twitter @JewelryNewsNet and Instagram @JewelryNewsNetwork.