

TEFAF New York Fall 2018 returns to New York City

BY BLOUIN ARTINFO | OCTOBER 26, 2018

Victorian Salamander Brooch England - circa 1890 Demantoid garnet, diamond and gold Length 10.2 cm (4 in.)
(Courtesy: A La Vieille Russie)

With a selection of 93 exhibitors, including 10 new participants, TEFAF New York Fall 2018 will witness an array of galleries and artists taking part in the third iteration of the art fair, which launched in October 2016.

Focusing on fine and decorative arts from antiquity through the early 20th century, TEFAF New York Fall will return to the historic Park Avenue Armory in New York City.

Bringing together a global community of collectors, interior designers, museum curators and connoisseurs, TEFAF New York is recognized for going beyond the boundaries of a traditional art fair. It serves to engage fairgoers in an immersive experience through richly curated booth presentations, dynamic programming and unique institutional collaborations that enhance the collector experience.

Visitors can explore the works by various galleries including: A La Vieille Russie (USA), Aardewerk Antiquair Juwelier (Netherlands), Didier Aaron, Inc. (USA), Agnews (UK), Kunstgalerij Albricht BV (Netherlands), Amells (Sweden), Antonacci Lapicciarella Fine Art (Italy), Ariadne Galleries (UK), Gregg Baker Asian Art (UK), Veronique Bamps (Monaco), Michele Beiny Inc. (USA), Benappi Fine Art (UK), Blumka Gallery (USA), Julius Bohler Kunsthandlung (Germany), Bowman Sculpture (UK), Burzio (UK), Cahn International AG (Switzerland), Caylus Gallery (Spain), and many others.

TEFAF New York Fall 2018 will not only present established and upcoming galleries but it also has a lineup of various programs that include TEFAF Coffee Talks and TEFAF Afternoons. These programs aim at bringing together celebrated figures in arts and culture to expand the view of art and culture throughout the fair. Linda Lees, Director of Cultural Programming & Special Projects, has lined-up an exceptional array of topics to be discussed by speakers who are experts in their field.

Established in 1988, TEFAF is widely regarded as the world's preeminent event for fine art, antiques, and design. TEFAF runs three fairs internationally – TEFAF Maastricht, which covers 7,000 years of art history; TEFAF New York Spring, focused on modern and contemporary art & design; and TEFAF New York Fall, covering fine and decorative art from antiquity to 1920. TEFAF gives international dealers the platform to present museum-quality works of all eras and genres to a broad base of collectors and connoisseurs.

The fair will be on view from October 27 through October 31, 2018, at Park Avenue Armory, 643 Park Ave, New York, NY 10065, USA.

For details, visit: <https://www.tefaf.com>

Click on the slideshow for a sneak peek at the fair.