ROOM SERVICE

America's first professional decorator, Dorothy Draper, was famous for mischief. "I always put in one controversial item," she said. "It makes people talk."

Never ENOUGH

THE INTERIORS OF A STORIED AMERICAN HIDEAWAY PROVIDE MAXIMUM INSPIRATION. ➔

When Dorothy Draper redecorated West Virginia's Greenbrier hotel in 1946, she covered the walls in her signature Cabbage Rose chintz. The pattern, it seems, springs eternal: It popped up on the spring runways of Balenciaga, Dolce & Gabbana, Zimmermann, and Brock Collection.
